

Cramps are more common in early renal failure particularly at night. They are precipitated by scratching, awkward posture or repetitive exercise. ...

read more