

Ken Collins made history when a dead man's lungs, made to breathe outside the body, were successfully transplanted in October. Before the 14-hour operation, ...

read more