Beijing - China's first face transplant patient, who was the world's second person to undergo such surgery, has died in the south- western province of ...

read more